Hopeful Highlights

At the Door County Medical Center Foundation, we are committed to our vision to provide this community with exceptional healthcare. We are eternally grateful to the generous donors who believe in our vision. In just a few short months, here is what has been accomplished:

$35,000

$35,000 was raised during the 14th Annual Queen for a Day Golf Outing for the David Spude Cancer Center Endowment Fund and DOOR CANcer, Inc.

$66,500

During the 60th Auxiliary House & Garden Walk $66,500 was raised to benefit the Pete and Jelaine Horton Skilled Nursing Facility and Hospice Care Center.

$158,000

The 25th Annual Golf Marathon raised $158,000 for the Pete and Jelaine Horton Skilled Nursing Facility and Hospice Care Center Campaign.

$40,000

$40,000 was raised during the Auxiliary Angel Scholarship Ball for healthcare related scholarships.

Queen for a Day Golf Outing - A Royal Success

Participants were treated like queens on a beautiful Door County day in the women's nine-hole scramble golf competition.

160 golfers participated in the 14th Annual Queen for a Day golf outing on Monday, June 28, 2021 at Idlewild Golf Course. The event raised $35,000 for two Door County cancer charities: the Door County Medical Center Foundation David Spude Cancer Center Endowment Fund and DOOR CANCER, Inc.

Congratulations to Sue Guilette, Event Chair, and everyone who contributed, on a successful event. Thanks to the volunteers, supporters and participants, these two important organizations are able to continue to address the needs of people and families struggling with cancer in Door County.

THE DAVID SPUDE CANCER CENTER FUND WAS ESTABLISHED IN 2005 BY THE DOERR AND SPUDE FAMILIES AND THE DCMC FOUNDATION TO PERPETUALLY BENEFIT THE DOOR COUNTY CANCER CENTER. THIS ENDOWMENT FUND HELPS TO ENSURE THAT A FULL COMPLEMENT OF CANCER TREATMENTS WILL BE AVAILABLE TO ALL THAT NEED THEM AND THAT THESE TREATMENTS WILL BE PROVIDED IN THE MOST COMFORTING AND PEACEFUL ENVIRONMENT POSSIBLE.

DOOR CANCER, INC. WAS CREATED IN 1997. OVER THE PAST TWENTY-FOUR YEARS THIS ORGANIZATION HAS GIVEN THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS ANNUALLY TO HELP CANCER PATIENTS AND THEIR FAMILIES MAKE ENDS MEET AS THEY GO THROUGH CANCER TREATMENTS.

60th Annual House & Garden Walk

Door County Medical Center (DCMC) Auxiliary held its 60th annual House & Garden Walk on Tuesday, July 27, 2021. The much anticipated event showcases Door County's most spectacular and unique homes, gardens and art.

"THIS YEAR IS SPECIAL BECAUSE IT'S OUR 60TH YEAR OF HOLDING THIS EVENT," SAID WENDY WALKER, CO-CHAIR. "OUR DOOR COUNTY HOUSE & GARDEN WALK IS ONE OF THE OLDEST—IF NOT THE OLDEST—EVENT OF ITS TYPE IN THE NATION."

The House & Garden Walk is the major fundraiser for the DCMC Auxiliary, with proceeds benefiting the DCMC Pete and Jelaine

Horton Skilled Nursing Facility and Hospice Care Center.

Thanks to the generosity of our homeowners, sponsors, volunteers and those who attended the event, more than $66,500 was raised.

"ON BEHALF OF THE VOLUNTEERS OF THE DOOR COUNTY MEDICAL CENTER AUXILIARY 60TH CELEBRATION COMMITTEE, WE THANK EACH INTEGRAL PART OF THE COMMUNITY, FROM LONG-TIME PATRONS OF THE HOUSE & GARDEN WALK TO THIS YEAR'S NEWCOMERS AND THE HOMEOWNERS WHO SHARED THEIR HISTORIC AND CHARACTER-FILLED HOMES, SPONSORS, TICKET OUTLETS, VOLUNTEERS AND COMMITTEE MEMBERS—YOUR GENEROSITY CONTINUES TO AMAZE US,"

- Wendy Walker and Chris Darling, Co-Chairs
House and Garden Walk Committee.

25th Annual Golf Marathon

The 25th Annual Door County Medical Center Foundation Golf Marathon benefiting the Pete and Jelaine Horton Skilled Nursing Facility and Hospice Care Center was held September 1, 2021 at The Orchards Golf Course in Egg Harbor. Over the past 25 years, this event has brought in over $1,850,000 in support of our vision.

THANKS TO A VERY GENEROUS AND SUPPORTIVE COMMUNITY, THIS YEAR'S EVENT RAISED $158,000.

Mark your calendar for August 31, 2022 for the 26th Annual Door County Medical Center Foundation Golf Marathon.

John Herlache, Steve Abrahamson, Tom Herlache and their team raised over $18,250 for the 25th DCMC Foundation Annual Golf Marathon.

Door County Medical Center Auxiliary Angel Ball

Established in 1956, The Door County Medical Center (DCMC) Auxiliary Angel Ball is the major fundraiser for healthcare scholarships awarded by the DCMC Auxiliary.

This year, the Angel Ball was held at Stone Harbor Resort in Sturgeon Bay on October 8, 2021.

New this year, Brian Stephens, President and CEO of DCMC was presented with and accepted the first-ever Angel Award on behalf of all DCMC staff for their leadership in helping to ensure the safety of our community during the ongoing pandemic.

We are proud to announce that $40,000 was raised to support Door County and Algoma high school graduates pursuing healthcare careers, as well as prior graduates who are enrolled in healthcare-related programs and DCMC employees continuing their healthcare education.

Congratulations to the DCMC Auxiliary on a beautiful event and a special thank you to all who contributed.

Kathleen and Monica Guilette, former Angel Ball Scholarship recipients speak with Deb Hogan, Scholarship Committee Chairperson.
